- R. Electronic Commerce and Correspondence. King County is committed to reducing costs and facilitating quicker communication to the community by using electronic means to convey information. As such, most Invitations to Bid and Requests for Proposal, as well as related exhibits, appendices, and issued addenda can be found on the King County Internet Web Site, located at <http://www.metrokc.gov/procurement>. Please refer to the "RFPs, RFQs & ITBs/New/GoodAndServices" portion of the site (note: some documents or portions thereof may not be posted on the site. Please note any special messages regarding a particular solicitation). Each proposer bears the responsibility to confirm the completeness and accuracy of all documents pertaining to a given solicitation, including the receipt of all issued addenda.

If a Proposer downloads a document from the Web Site and does not contact the Procurement Office to obtain a hard copy, the proposer must register with the County via the Procurement website. Unless otherwise requested, letters and other transmittals pertaining to this RFP will be issued to the e-mail address noted in our files, and after submittal, noted on the first page of this document. SECTION II – PROJECT SPECIFICATIONS AND SCOPE OF WORK.

A. Background information

- Over the years, King County has administered an on-site influenza (flu) shot program. Last year over 30% of employees chose to participate in the King County administered flu shot program. Prior to that the high level participation mark was 20%. A major factor that contributed to this increased participation was that influenza vaccinations were offered to all benefits eligible County employees on over 20 conveniently located worksites at no cost to the employee. Many of the remaining employees and their dependents chose to have the flu shots done by their doctors at no cost/low cost. This option to have providers administer vaccinations exists today and for the remainder of 2006.
- King County is a public entity encompassing Seattle, Bellevue, and a number of smaller suburban cities. The county provides regional services including courts and related legal services, public health services, the county jail, records and elections, property tax appraisals and regional parks and facilities, including King County International Airport (Boeing Field), public transit and sewage disposal. In unincorporated communities, King County also provides police protection, animal control, land-use regulation, roads and local parks.
- King County has over 13,000 benefits-eligible employees. Average employee age is a little over 48, and average annual wage is $53,538. The county is highly unionized (87 percent) and has 97 separate bargaining units. There are over 150 separate worksites, with the majority of employees located in the downtown Seattle area, and in the Kent/Renton area. Many county services operate 24/7; therefore many county employees work evening and night shifts, including weekends.

B. General Requirements

- Provide on site flu shots for all King County employees
- Participation by employees in the program is voluntary
- At a minimum, County support includes providing space and scheduling, and coordinating shots at on-site locations and facilitating program advertising, including print/poster and Web resources. Each site that is designated for flu shot administration will have adequate private offices and privacy screens to ensure participant confidentiality, privacy and security.
- There shall be no discrimination against any participant in the program, or against any applicant for participation because of race, religion, color, sex, nationality, marital status, handicap, creed, sexual orientation or age.
- The security and privacy of any individually identifiable health information shall be maintained (such as the name, employer and address, but not limited to these elements, as required by applicable laws to include HIPAA).

C. Scope of Work

The prospective flu shot management vendor should:

- Provide a Registered nurse and/or Licensed Practical Nurse licensed to practice professional nursing in the State of Washington to administer flu immunizations at King County locations.
- Provide the vaccine, syringes, needles and other supplies necessary to administer the immunization. Provide flu mist as an alternative for employees that are medically qualified and want this alternative.
- Bill Aetna, Regence, or PacifiCare for benefits eligible employees provided onsite immunizations. Anyone not covered by those insurance companies will pay for the flu shot at time of service to the nurse. King County will pay VENDOR within 30 days of submission of invoice, if being billed for services.

- Provide consent and/or indemnification forms to be signed by each person receiving an immunization.
- Services shall be performed on a specified date, time and location as agreed upon by the parties. (Note: currently planned to have flu shots done during three weeks of November at approximately 20 plus King County sites. Anticipate 3000 employees will want shots).

D. Planned Flu Shot Sites.

Twenty King County worksites have been identified for flu shot clinics. The number of flu shot clinic worksites may increase if flu vaccine becomes an issue and contingency plans are executed. It is planned that Public Health, and Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention will provide flu shots to all their employees and the vendor will not be involved in these shots. Additionally Group Health will administer flu shots to King County subscribers.

Table below provides the planned locations, dates and flu shot requirements.

Both Public Health and DAJD administer flu shots to their employees and this constitutes nearly three-thousand employees.

Group Health will conduct worksite flu shots for their employee who are Group Health subscribers. This constitutes about 20% of the workforce.

E. Contingency Planning.

In the event of a vaccine shortage King County will execute a contingency plan. This plan will require the vendor to provide flu shots to Public Health, and Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention personnel. The focus of the plan will be to ensure that Public Health medical care providers, Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention employees and King County Deputy Sheriffs as first responders, receive influenza immunizations on a priority basis. All of the planned sites will be made available to these personnel on a priority basis. Additional flu shot clinics will be conducted by the vendor at the Wells Fargo building, at the King County Correctional Facility, the Regional Justice Center and the Public Health clinics. Proposed dates and locations are indicated on the enclosed table but may be changed to meet the mission requirements of the organizations.

In considering offers from and doing business with sub-consultants and suppliers, the Consultant shall not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, nationality, marital status, sexual orientation or the presence of any mental or physical disability in an otherwise qualified disabled person.

SECTION IV - GENERAL CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS

PART 1: TERMINATION CLAUSES

If the Contract is terminated pursuant to this Section IV, paragraph A: (1) the County will be liable only for payment in accordance with the terms of this Contract for services rendered prior to the effective date of termination; and (2) the Consultant shall be released from any obligation to provide further services pursuant to the Contract.

- B. The County may terminate this Contract, in whole or in part, upon five (5) calendar days' advance written notice in the event: (1) the Consultant materially breaches any duty, obligation, or services required pursuant to this Contract, or (2) the duties, obligations, or services required herein become impossible, illegal, or not feasible.

If the Contract is terminated by the County pursuant to this Subsection IV(B) (1), the Consultant shall be liable for damages, including any additional costs of procurement of similar services from another source.

If the termination results from acts or omissions of the Consultant, including but not limited to misappropriation, nonperformance of required services or fiscal mismanagement, the Consultant shall return to the County immediately any funds, misappropriated or unexpended, which have been paid to the Consultant by the County.

- C. If expected or actual funding is withdrawn, reduced or limited in any way prior to the termination date set forth above in Section II or in any amendment hereto, the County may, upon written notice to the Consultant, immediately terminate this Contract in whole or in part.

If the Contract is terminated pursuant to this Section IV, paragraph C: (1) the County will be liable only for payment in accordance with the terms of this Contract for services rendered prior to the effective date of termination; and (2) the Consultant shall be released from any obligation to provide further services pursuant to the Contract.

Funding under this Contract beyond the current appropriation year is conditional upon appropriation by the County Council of sufficient funds to support the activities described in this Contract. Should such an appropriation not be approved, this contract will terminate at the close of the current appropriation year.

- D. Nothing herein shall limit, waive, or extinguish any right or remedy provided by this Contract or law that either party may have in the event that the obligations, terms and conditions set forth in this Contract are breached by the other party.

PART 2: INDEMNIFICATION AND HOLD HARMLESS

- A. In providing services under this Contract, the Consultant is an independent contractor, and neither the Consultant nor its officers, agents or employees are an employee of the County for any purpose. The Consultant shall be responsible for all federal and/or state tax, industrial insurance, and Social Security liability that may result from the performance of and compensation for these services and shall make no claim of career service or civil service rights which may accrue to a County employee under state or local law.

The County assumes no responsibility for the payment of any compensation, wages, benefits or taxes to, or on behalf of, the Consultant, its employees or others by reason of this Contract. The Consultant shall protect, indemnify and save harmless the County, its officers, agents and employees from and against any and all claims, costs and/or losses whatsoever occurring or resulting from 1) the Consultant's failure to pay any such compensation, wages, benefits or taxes; and 2) the supplying to the Consultant of work, services, materials and/or supplies by Consultant employees or other suppliers in connection with the performance of this Contract.

- B. The Consultant further agrees that it is financially responsible for and shall repay the County all indicated amounts following an audit exception which occurs due to the negligence, intentional acts or failure for any reason to comply with the terms of this Contract by the Consultant, its officers, employees, agents and/or representatives. This duty to repay the County shall not be diminished or extinguished by the prior termination of the Contract pursuant to the Duration of Contract, or the Termination section.

- C. The Consultant shall protect, defend, indemnify, and save harmless the County, [and the State of Washington (when any funds for this Contract are provided by the State of Washington)] their officers, employees, and agents from any and all costs, claims, judgments, and/or awards of damages, arising out of or in any way resulting from the negligent acts or omissions of the Consultant, its officers, employees, and/or agents. The Consultant agrees that its obligations under this subparagraph extend to any claim, demand and/or cause of action brought by or on behalf of any of its employees or agents. For this purpose, the Consultant by mutual negotiation, hereby waives, as respects the County only, any immunity that would otherwise be available against such claims under the Industrial Insurance provisions of Title 51 RCW. In the event that County incurs attorney fees and/or costs in the defense of claims, for damages within the scope of this section, such fees and costs shall be recoverable from the Consultant. In addition King County shall be entitled to recover from the Consultant fees, and costs incurred to enforce the provisions of this section.

Claims shall include, but not be limited to, assertions that the use or transfer of any software, book, document, report, film, tape, or sound reproduction or material of any kind, delivered hereunder, constitutes an infringement of any copyright, patent, trademark, trade name, or otherwise results in unfair trade practice.

Nothing contained within this provision shall affect and/or alter the application of any other provision contained within this agreement.

PART 4: CORRECTIVE ACTION

If the County determines that a breach of contract has occurred, that is the Consultant has failed to comply with any terms or conditions of this Contract or the Consultant has failed to provide in any manner the work or services agreed to herein, and if the County deems said breach to warrant corrective action, the following sequential procedure will apply:

- A. The County will notify the Consultant in writing of the nature of the breach;
- B. The Consultant shall respond in writing within three (3) working days of its receipt of such notification, which response shall indicate the steps being taken to correct the specified deficiencies. The corrective action plan shall specify the proposed completion date for bringing the Contract into compliance, which date shall not be more than ten (10) days from the date of the Consultant's response; unless the County, at its sole discretion, specifies in writing an extension in the number of days to complete the corrective actions;
- C. The County will notify the Consultant in writing of the County's determination as to the sufficiency of the Consultant's corrective action plan. The determination of sufficiency of the Consultant's corrective plan shall be at the sole discretion of the County;

King County's Equal Benefits (EB) Ordinance 14823 states that to be eligible for award of contracts at a cost of $25,000.00 or more, firms must not discriminate in the provisions of employee benefits between employees with spouses, and employees with domestic partners. The successful Contractor, bidder or proposer shall be required to complete a Worksheet and Declaration form. Compliance with Ordinance 14823 is a mandatory condition for execution of a contract. The EB Compliance forms are available online at: <http://www.metrokc.gov/procurementforms/eb.aspx>.

3. The King County Board of Ethics maintains a website that provides information regarding King County ethics requirements. To review specific areas of the Code of Ethics that relate to contractors and vendors, follow this path: <http://www.metrokc.gov/ethics/>, and access 1) The Code of Ethics, "Employee Code of Ethics 3.04", and 2) Advice and Guidance "Doing Business with Contractors, Vendors, Clients and Customers". The Consultant shall use both sides of paper sheets for copying and printing and shall use recycled/recyclable products wherever practical in the fulfillment of this Contract.

The parties to this Contract hereby mutually agree that if any patentable or copyrightable material or article should result from the work described herein, all rights accruing from such material or article shall be the sole property of the County. The foregoing shall not apply to existing training materials, consulting aids, check lists and other materials and documents of the Consultant which are modified for use in the performance of this Contract.
